Andrea Yi-Shan Yang

Deputy Secretary-General
Democratic Progressive Party (DPP)
Taipei, Taiwan

Dear Andrea,

First of all, congratulations on DPP's victory. We are very happy that we were with the DPP during this very important occasion. Our trip reflects the strong solidarity we have and that in any circumstances, we are always ready to show support to fellow liberals.

On behalf of the CALD Election Mission Team and the members of the CALD Executive Committee, let me extend my utmost thanks to the DPP particularly your team and the International Affairs Department, led by Vincent and Alysa, for generously hosting and efficiently arranging important meetings for us during the recently concluded observation mission.

We appreciate the time and effort that the DPP has shown the international delegates. We know you have a lot more important things to focus on during this critical stage in the campaign, and yet, we still felt the warm hospitality and generosity of your team. Thank you so much.

Please extend our gratitude as well to DPP's young volunteers and interns who have helped us during the activity. Their presence and roles during this momentous time in Taiwan inspire our member parties to continue to empower and reach out to the youth.

The members of CALD as well as the LI delegation are not just happy because of the turnout, but also because of the peaceful and honest conduct of elections. They're also happy learn from the way the DPP addressed disinformation and threats from external forces. Hopefully, we can further learn from this campaign and integrate the discussion to some of our CALD workshops.

We are excited for Taiwan and excited to have the DPP in the next CALD events. Once again, thank you for all the help and assistance during the CALD's successful election mission. We hope to see again soon! For now, please enjoy the celebration with your team that you all truly deserve.

Sincerely,

Mardi Seng
CALD Chairperson
